

Do not further restrict my freedom by censoring satellite radio! Allow free enterprise and force those companies falling behind to either get better or move out of the way. Support capitalism in every industry...including communications.